Barrington Resident to Receive Board of Governors Award from Illinois State Bar Association

Attorney Robert H. Hanaford, a resident of Barrington, will receive the 2009 Board of Governors Award from the Illinois State Bar Association (ISBA) on Friday, June 26, at the organization's 133rd Annual Meeting in Fontana, Wis.

The award is given to ISBA members for significant service to the profession and the public.

Hanaford, the principal in Law Offices of Robert H. Hanaford, LLC, with offices in Chicago and Fox River Grove, is a member of the Committee on Continuing Legal Education, and has devoted countless hours to coordinating seminars of the Civil Practice and Procedure Section for at least six years, said ISBA board member Russell W. Hartigan, who made the nomination.

Hanaford also has helped develop the biennial ISBA Allerton House Conference on civil practice, and he is the Insurance Law Section Council newsletter co-editor.

The 35,000-member ISBA, with offices in Springfield and Chicago, provides professional services to Illinois lawyers, and education and services to the public.
