Chicago Lakeview Resident to Receive Board of Governors Award from Illinois State Bar Association

Michele M. Jochner, a resident of Chicago's Lakeview neighborhood, will receive the 2009 Board of Governors Award from the Illinois State Bar Association (ISBA) on Friday, June 26, at the organization's 133rd Annual Meeting in Fontana, Wis.

The award is given to ISBA members for significant service to the profession and the public.

Jochner, law clerk to Illinois Supreme Court Justice Charles E. Freeman, has an extensive record of service to the legal profession, said Cook County Judge Naomi H. Schuster, who nominated her.

Jochner serves on the ISBA Civil Practice and Procedure Section Council and the General Practice, Solo and Small Firm Section Council, and is associate newsletter editor for the Bench and Bar Section Council.

She chaired the recent All Bar Unity Dinner, is head of the Chicago alumni chapter of Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity, and serves on the board of the Chicago Metropolitan Battered Women's Network.

The 35,000-member ISBA, with offices in Springfield and Chicago, provides professional services to Illinois lawyers, and education and services to the public.
