

ILLINOIS STATE BAR ASSOCIATION
FRED LANE'S TRIAL TECHNIQUE INSTITUTE
HAS BEEN CERTIFIED TOWARD FEDERAL BAR ADMISSION

THE COURSE:

The course consists of two seminars (total of 54 hours), approximately four months per semester (Fall Semester: September through January; Spring Semester: February through June). You may start with the semester of your choice. Breaks for holiday consideration do exist. Each class meets one evening per week on Tuesdays from 5:15 P.M. until 6:45 P.M. at the Illinois State Bar Association - Chicago Regional Office, 20 South Clark Street - Suite 900.

THE COST:

Tuition: $ 875.00 for members of the Illinois State Bar Association
 $1,200.00 for non-members

THE STRUCTURE:

Each session is audio-video taped so you may see and hear the improvements in YOUR voice, manner and trial technique. This is not a lecture course. It is a "learn-by-doing" method only that covers all phases of trials. You will learn and practice the new trial techniques, including the psychological formulae for proof of facts for both plaintiff and defendant attorneys. Introduce x-rays, books of account, customs, lost instruments, carbon copies, depositions, telephone conversations, and experiments. The course also covers demonstrative evidence, refreshing memory, objections, offers of proof, hypothetical questions, medical proof, direct and cross-examination of experts, cardinal principals of cross-examination, and impeachment of witness. You will receive practice in the selection of Juries, making winning Opening Statements and Closing Arguments to the jury in various types of:

PERSONAL INJURY CASES: Motor vehicle, malpractice, product liability, attractive nuisance, federal employers' liability, wrongful death, suits against municipalities, dram shops, airline cases, etc.

CONTRACT CASES: Goods, wares and merchandise, breach of contract, real estate broker's commission, and life insurance.

SPECIAL ACTIONS: Will contests, assault and battery, slander, malicious prosecution, false arrest and imprisonment.
